Section 4: Laboratory Safety Protocols

All researchers must wear eye protection and gloves when handling volatile acids.
Hazardous chemical spills must be evacuated immediately and reported to Room 102.
Maximum allowed solvent storage per fume hood is 5 liters.
Emergency eye-wash stations are tested weekly every Monday morning.